

Dr. Laura Moore is the Interim Chair of the Music Department at the University of South Alabama, where she also serves as the Director of Choral Activities. She directs the Concert Choir and Chorale, and teaches conducting and music history at the undergraduate and graduate levels. She received her doctorate in Choral Conducting from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Other earned degrees include the BA from Davidson College, a Master's degree in Piano Performance from the Peabody Institute of the Johns Hopkins University, and a Master's degree in Choral Conducting from UNC Greensboro.

Dr. Moore is active as a collaborative pianist, having served as staff accompanist at regional Metropolitan Opera and NATS auditions, and performing in faculty and student recitals at the University of South Alabama. She has served as clinician and adjudicator in North Carolina, Mississippi, Florida, and Alabama. As part of the Alabama Ambassadors of Music tour to Europe in June 2009 and June 2011, Dr. Moore conducted choral concerts in England, France, Switzerland, Austria, and Germany. In the summer of 2017 she traveled to China to conduct a three-week residency with the Shaoxing Children's Choir. Dr. Moore currently serves as the chorus master of Mobile Opera, and as Music Director at St. Mark United Methodist Church.
