

2023 CREATIVE LIVING CENTER

Happy 70th anniversary to the Alabama National Fair! The Creative Living Center (CLC) is honored to be a part of celebrating this joyous occasion. We have some exciting contests planned for this year and we look forward to seeing not only our returning exhibitors, but hopefully some new exhibitors. We have worked hard to identify our various early entry and live cooking contests and hope that they give everyone the opportunity to truly express their talents and skills. So, 2023 here we come!

If you plan to participate in any of the contests at the CLC, please make a point to read not only the Official Creative Living Center Rules, but also the individual contest rules applicable to the contest(s) you plan to enter. You must comply with all CLC and individual contest rules. Failure to comply with the rules will disqualify your entry.

All information pertaining to our 2023 competitive contests, CLC Rules, individual contest rules, entry forms, recipe forms, etc., can be found on the Alabama National Fair website. To locate this information please go to <https://alnationalfair.org>. Once on the website, click on the “Participate” tab, choose “Competitions” then click on the “Creative Living Center – Learn More” icon.

To make registration more convenient, we offer online registration where you can pre-register your entries (see CLC Rule #13). On-line registration is available beginning Tuesday, August 1st. The deadline for on-line registration is Friday, September 15th. As always, you may register your entries in person during the scheduled dates/times noted on the Alabama National Fair’s website and individual contest information sheets. Registration and recipe forms are available for printing on the ANF website. Feel free to print and complete the registration form and bring it with you when you deliver your entries.

Your continued participation ensures the continuation and success of the Creative Living Center. I sincerely hope you will make a point to visit the Creative Living Center when you visit the 2023 Alabama National Fair. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to give us a call or drop us an email.

See you at the Fair!
