GENERAL YOUTH LIVESTOCK RULES

1. Exhibitors: All Youth Livestock Show exhibitors must be a bona fide resident of the State of Alabama. Exhibitors agree to hold harmless and to indemnify the Kiwanis Club of Montgomery, its officers, directors, and members; the Alabama National Fair and Agricultural Exposition, Inc, its sponsors, its officers, directors, employees and volunteers, and the City of Montgomery for any claims, demands, or law-suits of any nature whatsoever involving loss of livestock or injury to livestock or exhibitor's personnel or for any actions by exhibitor's personnel. The owner and/or exhibitor is fully responsible for all his/her livestock and other properties, and the Fair is not responsible in any way for such livestock and properties. For damages or injuries that may be done to, or suffered by, said exhibitor, he, she, or they shall have redress against that person or persons causing damage or injury, and not against the Alabama National Fair and Agricultural Exposition, Inc., or the Kiwanis Club of Montgomery, or the State of Alabama.
2. Exhibitor Participation: Entries in the Youth Show must be shown by their owner. Only exhibitors with proper entries at the show are eligible to assist exhibitors who have more than one animal in the same class. The only exception will be for handicapped exhibitors which may receive assistance if approved by the show committee.
3. Exhibitor Age: For all cattle shows, Beef and Youth and Open Dairy, the exhibitor must be 9 years of age before or on the DAY OF SHOW. For Goat, Sheep, and Swine shows, the exhibitor must be 4 years of age before or on the DAY OF SHOW.
4. Exhibitor Equipment: Positively, NO open fires, charcoal fires, grills, cooking or food preparation will be allowed in the barns, pens, displays, or show area. Each exhibitor must furnish their own watering containers. Community or common watering facilities are prohibited.
